

AN UGLY LIE!

Genre: Romantic Comedy / Thriller

Tone: Lighthearted, suspenseful, feel-good

Logline

Two lonely strangers who overlook each other in real life create false online personas in search of love—only to discover their digital identities have placed them on the FBI’s watch list and in the crosshairs of a dangerous terrorist organization.

Story Overview

Maleek and Racheal cross paths daily but never take the chance to pursue a real-world connection. Instead, both turn to online dating, drawn in by the freedom to reinvent themselves and escape their insecurities. Behind their screens, they become confident, exciting versions of who they wish they were.

When their fabricated digital identities trigger national security alarms, their online fantasy collides violently with reality. Suddenly under surveillance and hunted by forces they never imagined, Maleek and Racheal are forced to navigate danger, deception, and growing feelings for one another—all while hiding the truth of who they really are.
